Section 53 of the Licensing Ordinance 1994 - Conditions attached to Part V licences for restaurants, guest houses, etc.

(1) In this Ordinance, "restaurant licence" means a Part V licence which-

(a) is granted for premises structurally adapted and bona fide used, or intended to be used, for the purpose of habitually providing the customary main meal at midday or in the evening, or both, for the accommodation of persons frequenting the premises; and

(b) is subject to the condition that intoxicating liquor shall not be sold or supplied on the premises otherwise than to persons taking table meals there and for consumption by such a person as an ancillary to his meal.

(2) In this Ordinance, "residential licence" means a Part V licence which-

(a) is granted for premises bona fide used or intended to be used for the purpose of habitually providing for reward board and lodging, including breakfast and at least one other of the customary main meals;

(b) is subject to the condition that intoxicating liquor shall not be sold or supplied on the premises otherwise than to persons residing there or their private friends bona fide entertained by them at their own expense, and for consumption by such a person or his private friend so entertained by him either on the premises or with a meal supplied at but to be consumed off the premises.

(3) In this Ordinance, "residential and restaurant licence" means a Part V licence which-

(a) is granted for premises falling within both subsection (1)(a) and subsection (2)(a); and

(b) is subject to the condition that intoxicating liquor shall not be sold or supplied otherwise than as permitted by the conditions of a restaurant licence or by those of a residential licence.
