Reason for visit

If you are a visitor you must also apply for a visitor permit. If you intend to stay for more than one month or you are travelling in the course of your work, you should apply for a visitor permit before you travel. Otherwise you can apply to the Immigration Officer for a visitor permit on your arrival in the Falkland Islands. To obtain a visitor permit you must have a valid visa, sufficient funds for your stay, confirmed accommodation, and a return ticket or confirmed means of return.

You do not require a visa to enter the Falkland Islands if you already hold – a Work Permit, Accompanying Dependent Permit, or Dependent Permit

5) GUIDANCE NOTES

- For the purposes of Falkland Islands immigration procedures you must declare ALL criminal convictions, whether or not they are considered to be spent by the laws of the country in which you were convicted, cautions and fixed penalty notices.
- A declaration of criminal convictions, cautions and fixed penalty notices will not necessarily mean that your application will be refused, but it is a requirement that they be taken into consideration
- Any material misrepresentation in this form may render you liable to prosecution in the Falkland Islands. It could also mean that any permit issued will be revoked and that you will need to leave the Falkland Islands
- It is an offence to take employment or engage in any trade, business, profession or vocation without permission to do so
- An application fee of £30.00 will be charged for each applicant. A further charge of £1.00 will be made for every dependent applicant named on this form (child dependents)
- All applications should be submitted via email to permits@customs.gov.fk
- Issuance of a visa does not guarantee entry to the Falkland Islands

6) DECLARATION

If you fail to provide complete and accurate information or if you provide information that is false then you may commit a criminal offence for which you can be fined or sent to prison

- I understand the questions on this form and confirm that the information provided is true and correct
- I undertake that if, between the time that I make this application and the time it is decided, any relevant matter relating to the application changes, I will inform Falkland Islands Customs and Immigration
- I understand that the Falkland Islands works to maintain a drugs-free environment and that if I am convicted of a drugs-related offence whilst in the Islands it may lead to the revocation of any visa granted on this application and my deportation from the Falkland Islands
- I understand that I am required to declare ALL criminal offences whether spent or not, cautions and fixed penalty notices, and that failure to do so may lead to the revocation of any permit granted on this application and my deportation from the Falkland Islands
