Notes

1. An application for a postal proxy shall not be granted unless:

(a) Electoral Form XVII is completed in full, and

(b) the applicant is already a postal voter in respect of his right to vote (otherwise than as proxy foranother) or and application by him for a postal vote in respect of his right to vote is allowed at the same time.

2. The Registration Officer shall not grant an application for a postal vote between 12 noon on the day proceeding the last day for nominations for an election and the return of the writ in respect of that election . This period is known as 'the closed period ' and further information of its duration may be obtained by contacting the Registration Officer for your constituency.

3. The closer period for a referendum normally begins 12 noon 14 days before the referendum date.

4. An elector should choose (and indicate by ticking the appropriate box in which he chooses to select) in respect of which election or elections he wishes to hold postal vote. If the elector 's Application Form does not specify his choice, it shall be deemed to have been made in respect of elections generally.

5. The Application Form must contain the full address to which postal ballot papers are to be sent. Failure to specify a full address will render the application invalid.

6. The Application Form must be signed by the elector personally, whose signature must be witnessed by one if the following:

(a) a Falkland Islands registered elector;

(b) a justice of the peace;

(c) a bank manager

(d) a commissioner for oaths

(e) a teacher of, or tutor to, the applicant; or

(f) any other person approved by the Registration Officer

7. The completed Application Form may be submitted by handing it personally to the Registration Officer or left at the office of the Registration Officer; sent by post to the Registration Officer; sent by fax to the Registration Officer ; or if sent by e-mail to the Registration Officer. If submitted by e-mail, an application must consist of a scanned image of a signed form.
